

NES PTA
General Membership Meeting
November 2, 2011

Welcome & Call to Order: Lorrie Warfield, PTA President 7:10 pm

Minutes: Keri Demos, PTA Secretary
Approved by Lorrie Warfield, seconded by Melissa Dick

Treasurer's Report: Teresa Wild, PTA Treasurer
$1,088 from Spaghetti Dinner
$ 3,244 profit from the Mini-Marathon

VP Report: Lorrie Warfield shared for Kim Tulp, PTA VP

170 hours of volunteering in October
110 PTA memberships to date
Art magnets coming in next week
Rejected by Dick's Sporting Goods for proposal for 30 tennis rackets

Principal: Duane Wallace

Read book fair report from Valerie Hartman:

- $2,358.71 Grand Total Scholastic Dollars
- $3,950 was brought in by book fair
- $520 book/profit was removed by Teacher Allowances and Student Gift Certificates

Old Business:

New benches for the lobby will arrive on Nov 11th; old couches will be donated to Harford Glenn

Chic Filet Night: December 1, 2011

Marquee is now being updated by Teresa Wild

Mr. Paul Weber (first grade parent) mulched around the marquee

Mini-Marathon went well

Ravens Breakfast: 3 boy bags, 3 girls bags are being offered this year
The treasure chest style approach to rewarding the children often takes too long for the children to choose when they should be eating.
Next Ravens Breakfasts are on Nov 11th, Dec 2nd, & Dec 16th

Apparel: Order forms are in process and will go home with students in the next couple of weeks. Laura will look into having size models available to look at during American Education Week.

Reflections: Nancy introduced the theme (Diversity means...) at the last Good News Assembly. Deadline for the artwork is Nov 8th. All artwork will be hung up for display, after it is judged, for American Education Week.

United Script: Patty Preston will run this program from Nov 17th through Nov 30th.

Movie Night: A date will be chosen to hold a movie night after the holidays.

New Business:

Six Flags Read to Succeed: This program will be offered to all students grades K-5 during the month of January.

Book-It: It was proposed to have PTA offer Book-It to the kindergarteners since it is not currently available to them. Mr. Wallace will check with teachers and advise the PTA of his wishes at the December meeting.

Candy Goodie Bags: A parent expressed a concern about peanut items in the Halloween goodie bags. She proposed that in the future all treat bags being sent home exclude the top 8 common allergens. Melissa Dick gave a report about the history and current decision process of the goodie bags. Mr. Wallace will look into the HCPS response to food with peanuts.

American Education Week:

Monday: Everybody

Tuesday: K,2,4

Wednesday: 1,3,5

Lunches prepared by the cafeteria are not available to visitors

Adjournment 8:40 pm